Volume 10. Spring/Summer 2008

June 2008

Well, we now find ourselves at the end of another academic year. We would like to take this time to pause and reflect back on all the events and services that the Center for Career Development offered to our students this past semester.

I. Launching of "Jobs by George"; March

This new tool enables students to search for internships and jobs. It allows employers to post job opportunities and download student resumes. It also permits alumni to sign up to mentor students.

Please visit the Center for Career Development website <http://career.washcoll.edu/> to set up your FREE account.
